*We have been informed by H M Customs and Excise that Value Added Tax (VAT) must be charged on invoices for colour reproduction costs, as we are providing a service to authors. This ruling applies to all invoices, irrespective of the country of residence of the author. We are sorry that this charge has been forced upon us. We shall, however, continue to keep our charges to authors to a minimum. € or $ rates will be converted to GBP at the point of processing the credit card transaction. Owing to fluctuating exchange rates the amount appearing on your statement may differ slightly from that quoted above.
